About

Haven Farm

Welcome to Haven Farm: A place of rest, connection, and celebration! Here on our farm, our space is your space. Here on our farm, all are welcome. We're grateful that you have found us, and we look forward to bringing joy and peace into your special day.

Are we Compatible?

Picking your Venue is more than just loving their location & facilities! Choosing the right one is like picking a friend. Your venue and the team working with you should be able to read how you are feeling and adjust to make sure it is the best experience for you. Here are some fun facts about us & let's see if we are compatible!

- We are huge nature lovers
- Avid coffee drinkers
- Very loud shower singers
- Did someone say yoga?
- A part of a family business four generations deep!
- Full time entrepreneurs with multiple side hustles
- We believe in queso
- There's no question, Star Wars is the greatest series ever created
- We believe that Love is the source of our being, and the answer we long for.

Is our venue Compatible?

Appreciation for Nature is a core value for us – we hope you love it too!

You may hear animals in the background on your special day.
Is that cool?

You might get some dirt on your fancy heels as you dance around.
How do you feel about that?

Every day is different on a farm, so flexibility is our specialty. Are you flexible?

We have the privilege of working with the weather as one of our full time partners.
Sometimes she's moody.

Grace and understanding is appreciated.

We are a family business.
Welcome to the family!
